Please include the following information with this application (single-sided pages only, no staples, please):

1. Summarize the title and nature of your research (limit to 2 pages) for a general audience. We are particularly interested in the innovative and creative aspects of your work. How does it break new ground in your field? What are its wider implications?

2. Writing sample: Provide a short excerpt (maximum of 600 words) from the proposed dissertation or from a published article.

3. Objectives and Accomplishments: Please submit your curriculum vitae (limit to 3 pages) and write a statement (maximum of 600 words) describing fully your intellectual and professional interests and your academic, professional or personal objectives.

4. Include three sealed, confidential letters of recommendation (addressed to the Phi Beta Kappa Fellowship Committee), at least one of which must have been written in the past six months. (Follow up with professors in early January as letters are frequently late.)

5. Supply official transcripts for all schools attended, including UC Berkeley.

6. Outline any financial problems you face, and how the fellowship would help you solve them. Explain why the more conventional forms of university financial aid do not cover your needs. Please list any other sources of confirmed university or fellowship support that you will have for the 2014-2015 academic year.

The application deadline is Tuesday, February 4, 2014 at 2:00 p.m. Incomplete applications will not be considered.
